

I am very dissapointed at the FCC allowing our airwaves to be used by bias political networks like Sinclair. They are abusing the privelege of public airwaves for political gain. Can you see this as one more danger that comes from media consolidation? Your job is one of public trust, get off your butts and protect the American citizen from these type of abuses.

Dominick Lane